Upon her hand he pressed his lips.
She said it wasn't right;
But he didn't seem to understand
Her hidden meaning quite.
"I beg your pardon, then," said he,
"If it was out of place."
"It surely was," the maid replied,
And then he kissed her face.

GOOD ROADS

Mason County to Have the Best That Money Will Build

The Fiscal Court Yesterday Heartily Endorsed Judge Rice's Plan For a $200,000 Bond Issue

The good roads movement in this State yesterday received the most substantial boost that has been given it by any county within its borders.

For years County Judge Rice has been figuring on two propositions—how to keep the four main turnpikes of Mason county in good condition and at the same time not increase the burden of taxes upon the people.

These two problems have caused the genial Judge many a restless night, for all who know Judge Rice will say that he has had only the interests of the people at heart in running affairs in Mason county.

After the Legislature passed the good roads law Judge Rice then began figuring anew on the road proposition in this county, and he came to the conclusion that the only way out of a bad fix was to get out, and as a money saver and a money maker at the same time "he has the goods."

His idea is to have this county vote a bond issue of $200,000, the bonds to run from five to twenty-five years, at 4 per cent. interest; and yesterday afternoon the Fiscal Court met in extraordinary session to consider Judge Rice's plans, and, with every Magistrate present, the court had the necessary orders drawn up for the bond issue as Judge Rice had planned, there not being a dissenting voice, and after a full and free discussion of the matter the Court adjourned until Thursday, when it will again meet and ratify these orders.

This county now has 345 miles of turnpikes that need constant attention, and on these 345 miles is spent annually $30,000 to keep them in repair and passable condition. While the pikes are in fairly good condition, as good as the money allowed would make them, the four main pikes, the Mason and Lewis, the Maysville and Mt. Sterling, the Maysville and Lexington and the Mason and Bracken, have become in such a condition that the heavy increase of travel now over them will not allow the authorities to keep them up. There is on fifty miles of these four main arterials that this bond issue is intended to rebuild, spending the other $30,000 each year on the side pikes, and in five years this county will be second to none in good roads.

The money due from the State—about $16,000 per year will be available next year and with $216,000 to start on this will enable the county to rebuild the four main lines.

As to the State law: Mason county will pay into State treasury $7,200 each year as its share on the 5 per cent. State levy for road purpose, and on the other hand will receive $16,000, or will receive over $2 for every $1 paid to the State, and in twenty-five or thirty years will have received about $300,000 in all. Where's your objection to Judge Rice's plan, huh?

All praise to Judge Rice and the Fiscal Court.

WHEAT NEAR $1.25

May Jumps Nearly Five Cents Above Saturday's Price.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The impression that the European war is to be prolonged one was again reflected in the wheat market at the opening today. Speculators, attracted by the recent decline bid the price of wheat for delivery next May up to $1.23 1/2 or 4 1/2 cents higher than the close Saturday and only 1 1/2 cents under the highest price of the crop registered last week. In the scramble at the opening bids were 2 1/2 cents apart, but in the next five minutes the price declined to settle between $1.21 and $1.22.

STABBING AFFRAY.

This morning about 6:30 o'clock, in the West End James Scott stabbed William Jackson in the shoulder with a knife making a bad wound. Dr. Yazzell dressed Jackson's injuries. The fracas was the result of an argument. Scott is under $100 bond.

France Battling For National Existence Against Germany

Allies Preparing to Keep Kaiser's Forces From Paris

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

Terrific fighting continues on Austro-Russian frontier. Both sides claim advantage.

Berlin reports capture of 30,000 Russians.

Austria reports Russians being pursued in direction of Lubin, Russian Poland.

St. Petersburg reports Russian advance in East Prussia proceeding, and repeats earlier Russian claim of successes in Galicia.

Fresh forces of Germans appear on Prussian front, according to British official report.

Manning Paris Fortifications.

Paris, August 31.—All night long troops from the south and west of France have been arriving at the capital and passing by rail around the city to the locations in the encircling fortifications to which they have been assigned.

There is great activity on the part of the municipal military administration in completing the details of the plans for the defense of Paris. Thousands of persons are preparing to leave the capital. It is felt here that the fewer the number of non-combatants in the city the better. Tickets for trains leaving Paris today to the west and south were all sold out last night.

"Ordered To Take Paris or Die."

London, August 31.—An Ostend correspondent says: "The emperor has made it known to every soldier that his orders are to take Paris or die."

Heavy Firing Near Dover.

London, August 31.—Heavy firing was heard at Dover this morning, which appeared to come from vessels along the French coast. The official bureau, it is announced has no information on the subject.

Charges Against Belgians.

Washington, August 31.—The German embassy today received the following wireless message from Berlin foreign office, dealing with the burning of Louvain by the Germans: "A Rotterdam newspaper correspondent was an eyewitness of the perfidious attack of the population of Louvain on the German troops. Snipers shot with mitrailleuses killing an officer of the general staff, who was found with his throat cut. In Longwy machines were found for making dum-dum cartridges."

Gen. Paul Pau Has Dealt Smashing Blow to the Invaders.

London, Aug. 31.—The French army and our English troops are now holding good positions in a much stronger and closed line and stemming the tide of the German hordes rolling up to Paris," says the Chronicle's Amiens correspondent.

"General Paul Pau, the hero of this war, after his swift return from the eastern front where he repaired the deadly check at Muellhausen, has dealt a smashing blow at the German army corps which was striking the heart of France.

"Paris is still safe for the time being with the great army of the allied forces drawn across the country as a barrier which surely will not be broken by the enemy.

"I have been all through this war zone during the past fortnight and nothing I have seen or heard from either the British or the French leads me to believe that our army has been smashed or that the allies are demoralized.

Workmen began dismantling the old hoghead factory at the corner of Commerce and Hall streets yesterday. The roof had been removed some time ago, and has remained in that condition until yesterday. The lumber will be used at another point.

Mr. William Gantley, who purchased one of the handsome building lots of Mrs. H. H. Collins in Second street, just west of Poplar street, has begun the erection of a handsome two-story residence to be completed as soon as possible.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Bracken will be held from the residence of Mr. Pat Maher in Washington this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Washington Cemetery.

"GO-TO-CHURCH"

Canoing Preachers Promote Movement To Attend Church Four Sundays in Each Month.

After a fifty mile paddle from Portsmouth, two young newspaper men from Washington, D. C., Harold Keats and E. Marshall Nichols, arrived in this city this morning with a view to promoting the national "Go-to-Church Sunday" and interesting non-church-goers in attendance at some place of worship for four consecutive Sundays. Representing the Church News Bureau of the National Capital and with the written endorsement of the President of the United States, the Vice President, the Secretary of State, Bishop Hardin and Cardinal Gibbons, the young men will endeavor to organize a committee of business men to take charge of the local end of the National church campaign.

The two young evangelists have made the entire journey from Pittsburgh to this city by canoe. Their trip will end at New Orleans.

All along the route they aim to interest young people especially in church going, making talks in dance halls, on street corners and in theaters, urging their hearers to give the church a trial.

In addition to this they are also organizing the school teachers in the different localities and for this purpose will address the teachers' institute now meeting in Maysville this afternoon.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Dr. Nora K. Brown of Fourth street was removed to Wilson Hospital last night.

Donald MacNamara who has been a patient at the Hospital for some time was removed to his home Sunday.

Little Frank Harrington, who was struck by an automobile Saturday is reported doing very nicely and his recovery is a matter of but a few days.

Mrs. James Dunn and Miss Anna Jolly are both much better this morning.

Miss Eliza Peers will open her Kindergarten Monday Sept. 7 in the Old High School Building, Fourth street.

In Squire Bauer's Court yesterday Ham Combs, charged with loitering was fined $5.15. He paid.

ALL OUT OF SORTS

Because He Was Not Paid for the Work He Was Compelled to Do.

Yesterday Hamilton Best was fined $1 and costs by Squire Bauer for a plain drunk. Best told the "Squire to call up Holman Crawford at Murphyville and he could go on his bond, and while waiting for an answer to the phone call Best was taken over to jail.

In a short time he was brought back and put to work cutting the grass in front of the Clerk's offices.

Crawford phoned in to let Best go, as he would stand for the fine, and before Best left he wanted to know the best way to get his pay for cutting the grass, as it was a private job, and didn't belong to those supposed to work out a fine, and also why he was compelled to go on a job to work out a fine that was already paid. The poet laureate then got busy and this poem was found on the handle of the lawn mower:

The grass isn't cut,
And I don't care a damn;
There is no one to cut it,
For I have lost Old Ham.
It is now thought Jailer Eitel will take an appeal.

PARCEL-POST COLD STORAGE.

Ice-boxes in postoffices for the temporary storage of eggs, poultry and other perishable parcel-post matter are a development doubtless not dreamed of in the early theories of this branch of the postal service. What next? Will there eventually be refrigerator mail cars and cold-storage warehouses at the larger offices?

The surprising evolution of the parcel post has already ramified its usefulness in unforeseen directions. Instead of serving merely as a carrier of small packages it has taken over most of the activities of an express company. As respects ice-boxes in postoffices, that is a logical enough condition in a service designed to bring the farm into direct communication with the city home. Cold storage of eggs, butter, fish, poultry, etc., will reduce yet further the loss on perishable products in advantage to the shippers.

But how is the consumer to fare? The examples given of "farm prices" equal to or above market prices evidence a disposition on the part of the producer to utilize the parcel post for his own benefit and to eliminate the middleman without advantaging the city buyer.—New York World.

MARSH HENRY AND THE BULL MOOSE.

While in New York the other day, Col. Henry Waterson gave out an interview in which he defined the Bull Moose as follows: "The Bull Moose stands half way between hell and the ironworks—the devil and the deep blue sea. He can swim, or eat live coals, as the case requires, be a woman or a man at will. In Roosevelt he is masculine, Perkins feminine and Pinchot neuter. All things by turn and nothing long, his votaries worship at the shrine of Teddy of the Forked Tongue and the Tigerheart, whilst Teddy rides him for all he may be worth." Judging from the returns of the last election, there are only about a half dozen Bull Moose in this country, Col. Perry and our friend, Lucien Beckner, being the only two in captivity, the others running wild. We are going to leave it to our readers to test Col. Waterson's definition on the home-grown variety. Mr. Waterson left out one quality which some Bull Moose have—Lucien writes poetry.—Winchester News.

THE VALUE OF THE BEAUTIFUL.

The clean street is an aid to virtue. The playground renders the corner policeman superfluous. Remove the slum, and you do not need to pay for a jail. Broaden your park places and you give clean and happy minds to young and old. Offer the noble monument and you will have high thinking.

For, though the streets may be paved and the water and other questions settled, a city can only be truly redeemed by the appeal to what is noble and true and beautiful in building, and boulevard, and park, and library, and museum and art gallery.—Montreal Daily Mail.

IS THE DRY SEASON NEAR?

War Bulletin: Reports of the sinking of German schooners by Bluegrass minors are being strictly censored, now that the 28th of September draws near—Carlisle Mercury.

"Papa Wilhelm" is the busiest man in Europe just now, it seems, and the way he is handing out "decorations" shows that he is as liberal as a circus press agent.

THE NEW IDEA.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, chewing a long cigar vigorously, said in Danville:

"These young socialists and anarchists and what-not want to run the world. And a pretty mess they'd make of it with their 'hunger strikes' and 'silence patrols' and what-not. Why, they've got no experience."

Uncle Joe smiled a grim smile.

"We used to say that you were never too old to learn," he grumbled. "Nowdays the idea seems to be that you're never too young to teach."

SOME BED ROOM SUITE.

Poverty does not reign in all parts of the world. In distressed Europe millions are wondering about absolute subsistence. But in New York this advertisement appeared in a big paper:

"The finest bedroom suite we have ever seen. Ten pieces, $2,605, previous price $3,475; of golden satinwood with hand-painted decorations; twin beds, dresser, triplicate-mirror, dressing table, chiffonier, writing desk with secret drawer, table, chaise, caned arm and side chair."—Commercial Tribune.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOG.

Mrs. Belmont asks why it is that New York shop girls find their room rent increased because there is war in Europe? The answer is that the lodging-house hogs are participating in the general rush upon the purse of the always hapless consumer. War is a pretext, and not a cause, for skyscraping prices.—Courier-Journal.

THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS.

Emperor Francis Joseph and Emperor Wilhelm have bestowed medals of honor and bravery upon each other.

WE SHOULD WORRY.

Because the singers have gone to war in Europe there will be no grand opera in Chicago this winter.

According to the Spectator the total amount of insurance now carried by United States life insurance companies exceeds $20,520,000,000, of which $16,603,778,200 represents ordinary business, and $3,924,130,941 industrial.

It would appear that the only reason the Kaiser didn't declare war on the United States is that he ran out of stationery.—St. Louis Times.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

There Was No Light.

In tones of tearful pleading
He asked and plead and cried,
But no one ever heard him;
The fellow nearly died.

It was dark.

It was darker than that—it was very dark.
He was speaking—speaking rapidly, yet no one paid the slightest attention, although three other men were in the room with him.

"Help me!" he was saying earnestly. "My back itches and I can't reach that far. Will no one help me? This is unbearable!"

No one of the other men stirred, although their hearing was perfect.

The fourth man spoke on faster and faster.

"For the love of pity, one of you fellows aid me!" he entreated. "If your back ever itches in a place where you couldn't reach to scratch, you would know what I am suffering! Will no one come to my assistance?"

Still not one of the three made a move to help him.

It was terribly dark.

It was so dark that the deaf-and-dumb man who was talking could barely see his hands before his face to watch himself talk, so how could any of the other men be expected to see what he was saying?—Louisville Times.

THE FLEMING INSTITUTE

Session Last Week a Good One—105 Teachers Enrolled.

Flemingsburg, Ky.—The Fleming County Teachers Institute convened at Flemingsburg on Monday, August 24, at 10 o'clock and closed Friday noon. Prof. W. F. DeMoss of the University of Missouri, of Rolla, Mo., whom had been employed by Supt. Hull sometime before was on hand and conducted the same all week. Mr. Marvin Evans of Butler was elected chairman and Mrs. Iolene Hawkins of Flemingsburg, secretary and Prof. Ben Kidwell of Ewing, assistant secretary.

One hundred and five teachers were present on the first day and very regularly attended the same all week, and all seem well pleased with the work that was done.

Prof. DeMoss' lectures each day on Literature and other topics were very able addresses and much enjoyed by all. The music was real fine, being led by Mrs. Andrews and assisted by Prof. Kidwell, and being enlivened with several fine pieces that were ably rendered by the young folks of the town.

Supt. Hull was a tireless worker during the entire term to make it a success and we are proud to say that his desires were gratified to the fullest.

Mrs. Gardner, superintendent of the Nicholas county schools was present on Thursday and delivered an excellent lecture to the trustees and teachers which was well received, and to further enliven things Mrs. Hubbard, a suffragette speaker of Covington, came on Thursday afternoon and delivered an address on Woman's Suffrage, which was carefully listened to by about 600 to 700 persons.

The Institute just closed was pronounced to be one of the most interesting that has been held in this country for some time. C. H. C.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Mayville woman's convincing statement: Mrs. Dora McFord, Maysville, Ky., says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I found that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was a great deal better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. McFord had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CARLYLE ON WAR.

From "Sartor Resartus."

What, speaking in quite unofficial language, is the net purport and upshot of war? To my own knowledge, for example, there dwell and toil in the British village of Dunbridge usually some five hundred souls. From these by certain "natural enemies" of the French, there are successively selected, during the French war, say thirty able-bodied men; Dunbridge, at her own expense, has suckled and nursed them; she has, not without difficulty and sorrow, fed them up to manhood, and even trained them to crafts, so that one can weave, another build, another hammer, and the weakest can stand under thirty stone avoidpois.

Nevertheless, amid much weeping and swearing, they are selected, all dressed in red, and shipped away, at the public charges, some two thousand miles, or say only to the south of Spain; and fed there till wanted. And now to that same spot, in the south of Spain, are thirty similar French artisans, from a French wending; till at length, after infinite effort, the two parties come into actual juxtaposition; and thirty stand fronting thirty, each with a gun in his hand.

Straightway the word "fire" is given; and they blow the souls out of one another; and in place of sixty brisk, useful craftsmen the world has sixty dead carcasses, which it must bury, and anew shed tears for. Had these men any quarrel? Busy as the devil is, not the smallest! They lived far enough apart; were the entire strangers; nay, in so wide a universe, there was even, unconsciously, by commerce, some mutual helpfulness between them. How then? Simpleton! their governors had fallen out; and, instead of shooting one another, had the cunning to make these poor blockheads shoot.

THE DEATH OF THE POPE.

"In ancient times," said Pope Pius X., rousing himself from the coma of approaching death, "the Pope might have stopped the slaughter by a word. Now he is powerless."

So is every other lesser pontiff of religion. In the Twentieth Century Christianity and civilization are laid aside as easily as a garment is flung aside in preparation for a fight. Women and children are trampled under the feet of ruthless soldiers, private property is destroyed wholesale. Whole populations are driven from cities that were scenes of peace and hope and thirst a few weeks ago. All of the ghastly injustice of war is inflicted upon the defenseless in hideous struggle for more power.

It is a saddening spectacle. Religion and civilization seem paralyzed. With assumed piety one emperor prays to God before going to the slaughter, and he is no worse than the rest. Monarchs closely related by ties of blood are at each other's throats like blood-thirsty wolves.

Despite religion, despite education, despite the enlightening influence of steam transportation, despite everything we have thought was making the present time better than any other, "heir to all ages" Europe is flung back into barbarism and America will be lucky if she escapes being dragged in.

Small wonder that Pope Pius die-broken-hearted.—State Journal.

HAY FEVER SEASON IS NOW OPEN

New York.—Throughout the length and breadth of the land, the official hay fever season opened Sunday to the accompaniment of approximately 653,427 sneezes. (That's the number of hay fever victims said to suffer annual in the United States.)

There may have been numerous hay fever sneezes heard previous to today but these were merely desultory ca-choos. They were, so to speak, the advance guard of the forces which opened with the heavy artillery of sneeze Sunday.

By some strange fate or law of nature, which as yet is not explained, the victims of this obnoxious malady sometimes after the date, according to many victims, they are attacked. It is about that time that the pollen from dandelions and other growths begin to float through the air, and it is the presence of these all but invisible tiny particles in the air that causes the hay fever. Only after the first frost do the majority of sufferers get relief from constant sneezing and other uncomfortable effects of hay fever.

SOME OF THE HORRORS OF MODERN WARFARE

The present war in Europe seems destined to develop horrors which the ancients, with all their cruelty, never dreamt of.

PANAMA CANAL BEING OPERATED AT LOSS

Deficit Due to Small Traffic Consequent Upon the War In Europe.

Washington.—As direct result of war in Europe receipts from the operation of the Panama Canal have failed to pay expenses of the great waterway. Tolls during the first week of traffic in the equal amounted to only about $15,000. That was not enough to pay operating expenses, much less meet the interest payment on the vast capital invested.

Tobacco That is Good For Your Nerves

TUXEDO actually soothes the nerves. It is just mild enough to keep your nervous system in poise, your muscles in tone. Unlike other tobaccos, Tuxedo burns cool and slow. There cannot be a speck of irritation in a pound of Tuxedo.

Great singers smoke Tuxedo just before a performance. Public speakers testify as to its soothing influence. Doctors recommend it to smokers whose throats are delicate.

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

The secret of its superiority is the unique "Tuxedo Process" by which all the unpleasant features are eliminated from tobacco.

Another reason is that Tuxedo is made from the best tobacco grown — the choicest, mildest, mellowest leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco.

Tuxedo is widely imitated—but no other manufacturer has succeeded in making a tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

GERMANTOWN FAIR

Closed Its Sixtieth Exhibition Saturday With Great Throng Present—Premises Awarded In the Show Ring.

The Germantown Fair is the typical fair for the old-fashioned country enjoyment, and Saturday's crowd, about five thousand, was surging and laughing, and courting—in the same old way. From the number of vehicles on the grounds one would judge there were 20,000 people present.

Nowhere in the State of Kentucky has there been seen as many autos parked together as were at the Germantown Fair Saturday. It was a sight to see.
